GENOA'S NEW LENDING LIBRARY NEEDS YOU

are working with Kathleen Contento and Doug Lubushkin at the Genoa Country Store to make it happen.

The space for the library will be provided by Kathleen and Doug, and will be located on the second floor of the Country Store. The shelves will be stocked with books donated by in the greater Genoa community. They will also need some donated furnishings – book shelves, chairs, reading lamps, etc.

The hours of operation will be determined by the number of volunteers they can recruit to staff the library – perhaps during the lunch hour and on Wednesday evenings to coincide with the Wednesday night dinners.

They hope to open the library early in 2009. If you have books or library furnishings you are willing to donate, or want to get involved in this project, contact Linda Birdwell at 782-2230 or macbird2@charter.net.
