

The Town of Genoa Recreation & Events Committee Proudly Presents

American Roots Old Time Music Festival

Fiddle sticks... or violin bow.

FREE!

Old Time Music Festival

FREE!

Musicians will present old time Americana roots music throughout the afternoon.

County Valley Jug Stompers, Quake City, Hot Two Plus One, Julio and the Honeybunnies and other musicians are slated for the entertainment of the day.

An open jam session will be held at 7 p.m. in the Genoa Town Hall. Bring a picnic and enjoy hanging out in the park and in town for the day.

SATURDAY
August 15

in the Genoa
Town Park

NOON – 6 P.M.

Musicians will play American roots music at this free festival.

Co-chairs, Sue Knight and Mark Kuniya want local businesses to get involved by doing something in the theme of the festival...

“We invite and encourage all of the Genoa-area businesses to:

- ◆ Play recorded old time fiddle music
- ◆ Have a musician playing at your store prior to the concert
- ◆ Dress in costume
- ◆ Offer an “Old Time Music Festival” special at your store
- ◆ Help organize the event by volunteering on the committee
- ◆ Booths available to be rented for $25 in the park – should be related to Old Time Music
