

Genoa Lending Library's Anniversary & Book Sale

on Wednesday, March 3, 2010, from 4–5:30 p.m., located upstairs at the Genoa Country Store. Free appetizers and beverages will be served to all who attend. If you'd like, you can then head downstairs for Wednesday Night Dinner at the Genoa Country Store.

On January 17, 2009, the Genoa Lending Library opened its doors to Genoa residents in the two front upstairs rooms of the Genoa Country Store. A big “Thank you!” to our volunteers and an even bigger “Thank you!” to the owner of the Genoa Country Store, Ron Benedetti. In November 2009, the Genoa Lending Library moved from the two front upstairs rooms of the Genoa Store to two back rooms upstairs — thanks to a crew of volunteers.

The library is open the same hours as the Genoa Country Store, but, there won't be a librarian on duty. Patrons of the library are expected to abide by the honor system when checking out and returning materials. Genoa visitors are welcome to check out books and materials as long as they drop them off before they leave.

The Genoa Lending Library accepts donations of books, audio books, furnishings and other materials — ask about our guidelines for donations.

The Genoa Lending Library provides a cozy venue for local book clubs or even small meetings or gatherings — or it's just a nice place to have a sandwich lunch and read a good book.

We are always looking for volunteer librarians to process donations, clean up the bookshelves or tidy up the library. If you are interested in becoming a Genoa Lending Library volunteer, please contact Barb Wilson at (775) 782-6859, or Linda Birdwell at (775) 782-2230, or drop by and sign up on our calendar.
