

GENOA AMERICANA CELEBRATION

2014 Fourth Of July Celebration

This year's 4th of July Celebration in Genoa will prove to be bigger and better than ever before. The day will feature five traditional music groups and will conclude with a performance by the Carson Symphony Orchestra featuring McAvoy Layne as Mark Twain. The celebration kicks off in the at 10 a.m. with a children's parade that young and old alike will not want to miss. Decorate your bike, trike, wagon, walker, pet or yourself and join in the fun (no motorized vehicles please). The first musical performers, Wild Horse Drive, a traditional bluegrass group will take the stage at 11 a.m. followed at noon by the Gabardine Sisters old time radio show. The Steve Hayes Dixieland jazz band kicks off the afternoon followed by the Six Mule Pile-Up string band and concluding with The Kepple Band. Other activities through out the day include children's games, musical workshops and jam sessions, and the locally world famous Genoa Volunteer Fire Department July 4th Chicken BBQ.

The Genoa Americana Celebration is sponsored by the Traditional American Music Project, Friends of Genoa and the Town of Genoa. For details and information about this event, please visit www.americancelebration.org.

Luxury Leasing

Torry Johnson, a Genoa Lakes resident, introduces luxury leasing to the Carson Valley, meeting the needs of discerning owners and tenants alike. If you have the option of "waiting out" the market, leasing provides the best of both worlds—preserving your equity while covering the carrying costs of a home you no longer choose to occupy.

The following are just a few of our many benefits to you:

- State-of-the-art marketing and website syndication
- Rigorous screening and placement of highly qualified tenants
- No maintenance or repair surcharges

"Luxury leasing for discerning clientele."
